

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN & RYAN ADAMS

had a baby...

his name is...

BRADLEY WIK

Book him now for the greater Carolina area

BIO:

Drawing comparisons to his greatest influences like Springsteen, Ryan Adams and the Replacements, Bradley Wik has built a name for himself through his songwriting, his live performances, and his punctuality (Spinal Tap, anyone?). With 2 full-length albums and a couple EP's under his belt, he has garnered significant radio play and press, both in the U.S. and abroad.

Bradley's music has been optioned by MTV, for several movies and was part of the soundtrack for the NASCAR Heat 5 video game. Bradley has played hundreds of shows over the years all across America, from legendary New York City venues like Cafe Wha? and the Sidewalk Cafe all the way to Portland, Oregon's venerable Doug Fir and Seattle's Triple Door Theater. Bradley Wik and the Charlatans are starting to build a name for themselves in the Carolinas as a hard working Rock 'n' Roll band.

CONTACT:

BradleyWik.com

BradleyWik@gmail.com

PRESS:

"For those thirsting for a fresh rock n roll sound, Bradley Wik is the answer. Raw and unpretentious, the sound harkens back to the likes of Bruce Springsteen, Tom Petty, and the Replacements. No gimmicks, no frills. Just pure passion." -Skope News

"There's an unmatched vitality that he brings to his music; it doesn't have to be perfect, but it does have to be worth it. What makes music great? The stories. And the moment where someone listening says, 'that's me.'" -Rock Era Magazine

"Bradley Wik and the Charlatans' 'Burn What You Can And Bury The Rest...' proves that rock and roll is not dead but it is in fact alive and well..." -NoDepression

FEATURED TRACKS: (CLICK TO LISTEN)

Lookin' at Luckey

Some Girls \(Still Love Rock N' Roll\)

Let's Go Out Tonight

This Old House